

JENNIFER YORKE

jfyorke <at> yahoo.com

BIOGRAPHY

Jennifer Yorke is an artist who makes drawings, prints, photographs and books. Jennifer's work examines the slippage between the public and private self, and is held in collections at the Auckland Gallery of Art, the Art Gallery of New South Wales, the Huntsville Museum of Art and other institutions. She graduated from Carleton College cum laude and with Distinction (honors), and holds an MFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, which she attended through a Graduate Trustee Fellowship. Yorke lives in Chicago with her husband Rob and dogs Fabio and Leonard.

©2009 Jennifer Yorke